INTERNERSHIP COMMITTEE PRESENTATION: Recreation Services Superintendent Bryan Garoutte introduced Jeff Ozimek, Chair of the Park District’s Internship Committee, who presented a review of the committee’s work since it began two years ago. The program was designed to provide individuals with hands on experience in the park and recreation business. It provides opportunities for career oriented college students from all over the country as well as local members of the community who want to get a foot in the door. The committee has developed an internship handbook, addressed housing needs, and developed an evaluation process that outlines clear expectations. The program has proven to be of tremendous benefit to the interns, the Park District, and the larger community.

Perry Barrett and the Board expressed appreciation to the Spoons for their donation and long-range vision for the community.
