Dear Island Residents,

While this year has been anything but consistent, our focus remains on offering safe and fulfilling recreational programming and outdoor opportunities. We appreciate the support we have received regarding our recreational programming, special events, and outdoor resources.

Parks have remained essential in keeping people active and engaged. In this past year, we have finished the John Nelson to Sound to Olympic (STO) Trail connection, the Founders Pickleball Courts at Battle Point Park, and are in the final stages of the renovation of the KidsUp! Playground. While you are spending time in parks and on trails, don't forget to follow our Park and Trail Etiquette, posted at all parks and trailheads. Please remember to wear a mask, step off trail for oncoming groups if possible, keep group sizes small, and stay socially distanced. Thank you for respecting our parks, staff, and other visitors during COVID-19. We would like to thank all our volunteers, part-time, seasonal, and full-time staff for their hard work, agility, and passion. We ask you to continue supporting our community and staff by continuing to follow our safety guidelines for parks and recreation programs.

Warmly,

Terry Lande, Executive Director

With the ongoing COVID-19 conditions, the Bainbridge Island Metro Park & Recreation District has had to remain alert and flexible, with programming guidelines changing weekly. As a result of consistently evolving health guidelines, the Park District has decided to move the distribution of the recreation program catalog to an electronic file. The decision to move Recreation Connection to a fully online platform allows the agency the ability to adapt our programs to fit changing government ordinances, while also reducing costs in this challenging time. A limited amount of hard copies will be available for pick-up at the Aquatic Center during operational hours. The online catalog will be updated weekly to reflect the most updated information.

Staff Spotlight

The Bainbridge Island Metro Park & Recreation District believes that employees and community partners are some of our most valuable resources. The meaningful work and outstanding commitments demonstrated by these people highlight what makes our Park District such an outstanding community asset.

Community Outreach Coordinator

An interview with Emily Swift.

QUESTION: After working with Park Services for years, how did you decide to switch to Special Events?

ANSWER: I loved working for Park Services, and I am so grateful that I still get to collaborate with the crew in my new Community Outreach position. They are the dream team behind our Haunted Hayride Pond Monster and all our unique attractions! While working with Park Services, I got to explore a variety of different roles, between volunteer coordination, horticulture, trail management, and more. No matter the role, I have always found the most enjoyment in my direct interactions with our community. I have always been drawn to the face-to-face moments, when all the preparation and development of an event or project culminates, and I am left with an image of my community members smiling and enjoying themselves.

QUESTION: What challenges have you faced transitioning to your new position, and what aspects have been the most rewarding?

ANSWER: Well, there has been a global pandemic! My first day was on March 16, and by March 17 we were working from home. It would have been a different, perhaps easier transition had things been operating in the status-quo, but this time has brought an opportunity for innovation. I have been amazed and proud to witness my colleagues jump at the challenge of adapting existing programming to operate in alignment with COVID-19 guidelines, rather than cancelling. I have watched folks think up brand new programs as community needs shift and change them again when those needs alter. I have felt the gratitude of community members as they arrived at the drive-in movies and called to sign up for Haunted Hayride, not expecting that these beloved events would be able to go forward this year. I am grateful to be part of a team that pushes forward instead of looking back at what might have been.

QUESTION: What have you learned from your first two events at the Park District?

ANSWER: My biggest takeaway from our drive-in movie series and Haunted Hayride is that there is still a big desire for Special Events to continue during this time. My colleagues and I have really worked at adapting our programming and events to run within COVID-19 health and safety guidelines. When we first relaunched, we didn't know if folks would feel comfortable participating, but they have. Both of my first events reached capacity, and I received such positive feedback. People were grateful to have something different to do, to shake things up, and feel confident that we are taking their safety seriously.

QUESTION: The current restrictions must have been a challenge in the planning process. How did you handle that part of the event? How have you ensured participants feel safe?

ANSWER: Absolutely. Ashley Miller, our previous Outreach Coordinator, left me with a lot of amazing events that I had looked forward to continuing. When everything changed, I had to as well. It's been a juggling act, trying to keep the spirit of an event like Haunted Hayride, while also making major changes to ensure everyone's safety. Behind the scenes I think to myself 'Okay, what is the nightmare scenario here?' and then I put numerous safeguards in place to make that an impossibility. At the end of the day, the most important thing is the health and safety of participants, volunteers, and staff, and I won't compromise on that.

QUESTION: What long-term changes do you see being made to our events?

ANSWER: There have been a lot of forced changes to events due to this pandemic, and it has pushed creativity in how we offer things. We are now prepared to host events in a different capacity, which in some ways has made events more accessible to our community. I hear folks say things like 'back to normal' or 'how it used to be', but I think we should take what we are learning now and carry that forward.

QUESTION: What future events do you hope to implement?

ANSWER: Turning Movies in the Park into a drive-in series and Haunted Hayride into a drive-thru event were natural fits, and the feedback we received was overwhelmingly positive. It inspired us to create Holiday at Fay, our brand-new winter event at Fay Bainbridge Park! It's an event that will bring light and joy into the dark winter months; something I think we could all use when sunset is creeping on 4:30pm lately. Families will drive a loop around the park enjoying holiday music and lights everywhere! One thing we've been missing on this island is a "Candy Cane Lane" type neighborhood where the whole family can pile into the car and drive up and down the street "ooo"-ing and "ahh"-ing the lights. Holiday at Fay is our version of just that! It will be a safe way for your household to do something special together in December.

If you want to be the first to hear about upcoming events, subscribe to the Special Events email list at biparks.org/special-events. We are always looking for volunteers for events!

GYMNASTICS

The developmental gymnastics program helps to introduce and refine total body awareness, strength, and coordination. A child may enter the program at age 6 months and work through the progressive classes, including a competitive team until age 19. Because gymnastics classes are offered all year, we have the opportunity to instill in children the need for physical activity as a lifestyle. It also allows us to equip the children with basic fundamental movement skills conducive to each developmental stage.

PARKING for Gymnastics Room: Please use the Aquatic Center parking area during day hours 9:00a-3:00p and walk to the gym using the sidewalk west of the Aquatic Center parking lot. Evening classes may use the parking area outside the Gymnastics Room. Parking is also available by the Commodore facility located on High School Road down the hill from the high school reader board. Spectator seating area is on the balcony located at the back of the gym. Please use the south entrance to the gym when at all possible to help control the traffic flow in the gym. Be aware of the parking lot in the evenings; there are many cars that drop off children to the Gymnastics Room or school events. MOUNTAIN BIKING

Come explore some of the best mountain biking Washington has to offer with us! Rides are geared towards group ability. Qualified instructors and trip leaders will work to expand riders' skill sets, maintain a focus on safety, and showcase a variety of great trails to mountain bike.

FAQS

General — A detailed email will be sent out approximately a week before the start of each program, with information on where to meet, what to bring, weather forecast, medical waivers, emergency contacts, and more.

Questions? Contact Sully Mynatt, Mountain Biking Program Coordinator at sullym@biparks.org or Spencer Nicholas, Mountain Biking Program leader at spencern@biparks.org.

Equipment — Participants must have a working mountain bike that is of suitable size, has gears to be able to go up and down medium grades of trail, functional brakes, and a properly fitting biking helmet. Please do not show up with bikes that have skinny road tires, a one- gear single speed, or major mechanical issues. Staff reserve the right to not allow participation if a bike is deemed to be unfit, non-functional, or if staff have safety concerns.

Bike Check — Staff strongly recommends that your rider's bike be inspected and tuned up by a professional bike mechanic 1-2 weeks before their first program of the season. Afford several days to ensure your rider's bike will be ready for pick-up. On Bainbridge, both BI Cycle and Classic Cycle are great bike shops that can help.

Equipment — Participants are responsible for providing their own personal clothing and equipment, but our Outdoor Gearbank has a select number of District mountain bikes (24" or 26" tire) that are available to borrow for free. Please contact Sully Mynatt, Mountain Biking Program Coordinator at sullym@biparks.org or Spencer Nicholas, Mountain Biking Program leader at spencern@biparks.org at least two weeks prior to needing a mountain bike in order to check availability and to allow for scheduling.

Physical Fitness — Participants need to be physically fit for each ride's unique challenges. Terrain and trails vary, please refer to the "Trail Difficulty Rating System." The Park District reserves the right to require a doctor's note to clear a participant for participation.

Program Prerequisites — Some of our mountain biking programs have program prerequisites listed in the program description. We list prerequisites to ensure that our participants are going to be in the program that is correct for their experience, riding ability, age, and more. The prerequisites are meant to help make sure participants are having fun, becoming better riders, and not riding above their ability level. Please contact Sully Mynatt, Mountain Biking Program Coordinator at sullym@biparks.org or Spencer Nicholas, Mountain Biking Program leader at spencern@biparks.org if you have any questions regarding the prerequisites.

Registration Deadlines — Registration deadline is three days before program start date. This allows us to effectively communicate with participants about any needs we can help accommodate as well as ensure each trip is a good fit.

Refunds — For questions about refunds, please see page 4. If weather or road closures cancel a trip, a pro-rated credit will be refunded for the missed day.

TRAIL DIFFICULTY RATING SYSTEM

Sections of the trail may be easier or more difficult than the criteria listed below. For questions regarding a specific program, contact the program staff.

○ (Easiest) — Small hills and generally flat, smooth/paved terrain, few to no avoidable obstacles such as rocks and roots. Suitable for newcomers to biking.

● (Beginners) — Rolling hills. Varied terrain including dirt and gravel. Avoidable obstacles such as rocks and roots, few to no unavoidable obstacles such as large roots. Suitable for beginner mountain bikers.

■ (Intermediate) — Steep hills. Challenging terrain that may include loose dirt and gravel. Avoidable obstacles such as rocks and roots. Unavoidable obstacles that riders may need to walk over such as drops and large roots. Suitable for riders with previous mountain biking experience.

◆ (Advanced) — Technical, long, and steep hills. Challenging terrain that may include loose dirt, gravel, sand, and rock. Difficult, unavoidable obstacles such as rocks, drops, and large roots. Suitable for riders with lots of previous mountain biking experience.

YOUTH

PRE-PROGRAM EVALUATIONS

Ages 5-18. Program evaluations are run on a case-by-case basis and are scheduled based on your availability as well as our instructors' availability. Please reach out to Spencer Nicholas at spencern@biparks.org to set up a date and time for the pre-program evaluation. We want to make sure that your rider is in the program that best suits them. This includes not only similar age groups, but also riding ability, terrain, and physical difficulty. This is crucial to our programs because it ensures that everyone is in a program that is fun, sustainable, and provides the right amount of challenge and progression. In order to establish these placements, our rider evaluations provide a safe, comfortable way for us to help find the program best suited to your rider. We are happy to chat over the phone or via email; however, the best possible way for us to place your rider in the correct program is through an evaluation ride. Evaluations will be one hour, one-on-one rides with an experienced MTB program instructor and will provide a fun way for us to ensure their enjoyment in the coming months. Meets at Grand Forest West.

TINY TRAILS CONTINUED ○

Ages 5-7. The Tiny Trails program is our beginner program for mountain bikers. This program is a great way for kids to learn what mountain biking is all about. Throughout the week we will cover foundational skills including effective starting/stopping, braking, and shifting. As we move through the coming weeks, we will begin to introduce our riders to climbing over obstacles, slightly rougher terrain, and more. We'll also play a number of bicycle-oriented games including slow races (challenging riders to go as slow as possible), relay races, and obstacle courses, all to help continue to develop fundamental bike handling skills. WILDERNESS PROGRAMS

"The farther one gets into the wilderness, the greater the attraction of its lonely freedom." —Theodore Roosevelt

Remote, rugged, undeveloped. Wilderness is a land heritage that is uniquely American. With passage of the Wilderness Act of 1964, Americans chartered a new course in world history to preserve and protect some of the country's last remaining wild places. The United States was the first country in the world to designate wilderness areas through law. In the words of Pulitzer novelist Wallace Stegner: "Something will have gone out of us as a people if we ever let the remaining wilderness be destroyed." Come join us and experience our unique wild heritage.

FAQS

General — Our wilderness trips offer one-of-a-kind experience, rewarding participants with the very best that the backcountry has to offer. A detailed email will be sent out approximately a week before the start of each program, with information on where to meet, what to bring, weather forecast, medical waivers, emergency contacts, and more.

Trip Leaders — Our trip leaders are Wilderness First Responder or Wilderness EMT trained professionals, who bring a wealth of backcountry medical knowledge, years of outdoor experience, and emergency response equipment on every hike. They are highly qualified, knowledgeable, and awesome to hike with.

The Outdoor Gearbank — Don't let a lack of gear stop you. Participants can use our equipment for free! Our Outdoor Gearbank has backpacks, mountain bikes, tents, sleeping pads, snowshoes, rain gear, and much more available to borrow for free.

Physical Fitness — Participants need to be physically fit for each trip's unique challenges. Mileage is round-trip, terrain and trails vary. The District reserves the right to require a doctor's note to clear a participant for participation.

Pricing — An incredible value for the amount of time, preparation, and quality expertise that go into each trip. Pricing includes trip leader, guiding time, gear, permits, and emergency response equipment. The Wilderness

Day Hikes have a special progressive discount that's applied on all hikes and reset each calendar year.

Equipment — Participants are responsible for providing their own personal clothing and equipment, but our Outdoor Gearbank may have items that can be borrowed for free. Inquire with your trip leader so they can help you get set up for success.

Passes and Entrance Fees — Participants are responsible for having the appropriate recreation pass or paying their own entrance fees on our Wilderness Day Hikes. Please see the specific trip descriptions for information on which pass is required for the trip. Northwest Forest Passes, National Park Passes, or interagency passes can be purchased online at store.usgs.gov/recreational-passes. Discover Passes can be purchased online at store.discoverpass.wa.gov. Entrance fees can be paid at the ranger station the day of the trip.

Registration Deadlines — Registration deadline is three days before program start date. This allows us to effectively communicate with participants about any needs we can help accommodate as well as ensure each trip is a good fit. It is helpful and saves time to have participant waivers, medical information, and other forms turned in beforehand. The District reserves the right to require a doctor's note to clear a participant for participation.

Refunds — For questions about refunds, please see page 4. If weather or road closures cancel a trip, a pro-rated credit will be refunded for the missed day.

INTERPRETIVE SNOWSHOE AT HURRICANE RIDGE

~3 mi.

~400ft elev. gain

This beginner- and family-friendly trip is a perfect introduction to snowshoeing. First, we'll try the snowshoes on different surfaces during a guided interpretive walk through Hurricane Ridge's gladed woods. Participants will learn about trees — their winter adaptations, relationships with fungi, effects on the air and humans, and more. After lunch, we'll snowshoe on a groomed trail to a viewpoint atop a snowcapped ridge. Trip meets at 7am. Drive is 2:15, all on pavement. Must carry chains. National Park Pass, interagency pass, or fee required.

STEEPLE ROCK SNOWSHOE

~5mi.

~800ft elev. gain

From Hurricane Ridge, head away from the crowds and groomed trails for big views, deep snow, and a great sense of solitude. This intermediate level trip features spectacular views of the Strait of Juan de Fuca and snow-capped Olympic mountains. Trip meets at 7am. Drive is 2:15, all on pavement. Must carry chains. National Park Pass, interagency pass, or fee required.

LAKE ANGELES SNOWSHOE

~2,300ft elev. gain

This well-graded trail climbs steadily through thick forest to reach its spectacular destination, Lake Angeles. Thousand-foot cliffs encircle the lake with, ice and snow packed into every crevice, and waterfalls struggle to free themselves from winter's icy grip. Well worth the hard work to get there! Drive is 1:45, all on pavement. No passes or fees required.

LOWER BIG QUILCENE RIVER

~10 mi.

~800ft elev. gain

This trail features several miles right alongside the river, offering countless views of its twists and turns. Along the way we'll see old growth groves, charming camps, and cross several huge bridges. Drive is 1:20, including 3.5 miles on gravel. Northwest Forest Pass or interagency pass required.

LOWER GRAY WOLF RIVER

~7 mi.

~1300ft elev. gain

We'll wind our way alongside the Gray Wolf River, a beautifully clear stream, as it peacefully flows through a canyon cut out of pillow basalt. This area is drier than most places in the Olympics, and the flora is subtly different, with thistles, lowland Indian paintbrush, and bunchberries. Drive is 1:20, including 3 miles on gravel. No passes or fees required.

DUCKABUSH RIVER

~1300ft elev. gain

Follow the quiet Duckabush Valley, where big maple and cottonwood trees will be spreading out new leaves! Soak in the views of a tall waterfall, visit the edge of a 2011 forest fire, and have lunch on a rocky overlook with incredible views of the valley. Drive is 1:20, including 2.5 miles on gravel. Northwest Forest Pass or interagency pass required.

HIDDEN BEACH

~7 mi.

~600ft elev. gain

Come visit this new state park before the crowds find it! The trail winds past leaning madronas, along old roads, and through a cool lush ravine to an isolated beach. We'll walk along the beach to Thompson Spit, enjoy views of Protection Island, and check out the sea life—there's an extremely low tide on this date! A good one to do with a guide, as there are many crisscrossing trails. Drive is 55 minutes, all on pavement. Discover Pass required.

PAINLESS PERSPECTIVE WORKSHOP with Jamie Brouwer

Perspective CAN BE easy; but not every artist has learned the simple rules that make it so. Yes, this course begins with horizon lines, vanishing points, and an understanding of the eye-level impact on representational drawings. And yes, you'll practice how to place figures and objects in a drawing, depict interiors, and create shade and shadows. But this isn't a dry, technical class — Everything is broken down into engaging and fun exercises! No matter how little raw talent or experience you have, you'll find your drawings instantly more successful as basic perspective becomes second nature. AQ

Section 02 is more advanced and includes color theory, the joy of ink washes, the simple beauty of watercolor, and the surprises created from mixed media. You'll already have your sketchbook from the first course and you'll choose all other materials.

CANINE

Bainbridge Island Metro Park & Recreation District continues to be a dog friendly environment. Dogs are allowed in all District parks if they are on leashes unless in a designated off leash area (Strawberry Hill Park and Eagledale Park). The District promotes "Responsible Dog Ownership" which encourages dog owners to show respect for other park users, other dogs, and their own dogs. By practicing responsible ownership dog owners can positively impact everyone's experience in our public parks.

The District created the Dog Advisory Committee to oversee and develop off leash programs. The District and the Dog Advisory Committee encourage park users to enjoy District parks with their dogs. The District's Dog Advisory Committee (DAC) is a group of citizens and park officials that aims to create a model of "Responsible Dog Ownership" in order to promote mutual respect, safety, and enjoyment for all park users. The DAC is tackling the challenging topic of off leash use of District parks. They work diligently to develop comprehensive programs to create opportunity, plan and implement educational programs, and monitor and adjust the enforcement program that allows all park users to enjoy their time in District Parks. It is the goal of the DAC and the District to create fun, safe parks where all park users show each other mutual respect.

To report a dog related issue, dial 911 and ask for Kitsap County Animal Control and Rescue. If you would like to know more about District leash policies or want to get involved in continuing to create positive solutions for dog owners, contact the Park District at 206-842-2302.

WHAT ARE CONTRACTOR CLASSES?

These are programs/activities which the Park District contracts to provide instructional services through an agreement with a private business. Contractors are responsible for their own employees, class curriculum, insurance and license requirements, and other conditions the Park District may stipulate. Contractor classes are clearly marked in this catalog at the end of each class description with "CONTRACTOR."

PADDLING PROGRAMS

"THE TWO BEST REASONS TO BUY A KAYAK RATHER THAN JUST RENTING ARE SUNSETS AND SUNRISES." — Thomas P. Jones

PADDLING

Being on a kayak, canoe or SUP is a great way to explore shallow-water bays and harbors inaccessible to other boats! Instructors will work to expand paddlers' skill sets, maintain a focus on paddling safety, and of course have tons of fun. We are proud to have many of our paddling staff registered as American Canoe Association (ACA) Level 2 Kayak Touring Instructor Certified, a certification widely recognized around the world. Come paddle with our incredible staff and learn not only new skills, but new areas to explore.

FAQS

General — A detailed introductory email will be sent out the week before the start of each session. This email will include required forms as well as logistical information such as where to meet, what to bring, and weather forecast.

Swim License — Youth: A District Swim License is required for youth boating participants who will be engaging in on-the-water programs. It is acquired through a one-time test held at the Aquatic Center and involves full submersion by jumping into the pool, swimming 25 yards, and then floating or treading water for one minute. The swim license form can be found at <https://biaquatics.org/>. Call the Aquatics Center at (206) 842-2302 to find out times when testing is available. If you aren't sure if you or your child is on file, visit <http://bainbridgeswim.azurewebsites.net/>. If your child is on file, print the record showing they passed and bring it to the first day of your boating class.

Adults: Participants age 18 and over need to complete the District Swim License or sign off on a Swimming Skills Acknowledgment form, self-certifying they can meet or exceed the requirements.

Learning About the Marine Environment — Being on a kayak, canoe, or SUP is a great way to explore shallow-water bays and harbors inaccessible to other boats. We often take advantage of this opportunity to teach about the marine and intertidal life that can be found around Bainbridge and Puget Sound!

Games, Beaches, and Shore Activities — To increase paddlers' confidence and skills, camps will often engage in shore launching and landing, practicing various entries, exits, mounts, and dismounts from their boats and/or SUPs. Plenty of on-the-water games and initiatives will help develop and refine participants' paddling skills. Beach activities may be mixed into programming as well.

Equipment — A US Coast Guard approved lifejacket (PFD) is required to be worn for all boating programs. Purchasing PFD to match your size, comfort, and style is recommended, however there are a select number of PFDs that participants can borrow. Closed-toe sandals or shoes are required. No flip-flops or bare feet. Kayak, canoes and stand up paddleboards are provided.

Registration Deadlines — Registration deadline for most programs is three days before program start date. The District reserves the right to require a doctor's note to clear a participant for participation.

Waivers and Forms — Participants must complete and sign required waivers and forms in order to participate. These forms will be emailed out to everyone approximately the week before each program begins. All forms and waivers should be turned in to instructors on the first day of class and remain valid for all 2021 winter/spring paddling programs.

Refunds — For questions about refunds, please see page XX. If weather cancels a program day, a prorated credit will be refunded for the missed session. Rain does not cancel programs; severe weather does.

SOCIALLY DISTANT SWIM LESSONS

See Quick Guide to Progression on page 52

Go to biaquatics.org for information on how to pack your swim bag for lessons.

Welcome to socially distant swim lessons! We have worked hard to adapt our Learn to Swim program to meet the requirements of the State and health department during this pandemic. We have made some changes to our program for everyone's well-being and safety. In the grid below, you will see either a "parent/guardian in the water" or "on deck" with swimmers. This is to help maintain social distancing for both your family and our staff. The "parent/guardian in the water" will work in tandem with our instructors to provide physical support in the water throughout the lesson. We ask that you choose a time that will allow you to be 10 minutes early to the facility. Why do we ask you to be early? Both the swimmer and guardian will need to complete a health screening and temperature check prior to entering the facility. Please be aware that all swimmers and patrons entering the Aquatic Center will be required to wear a face mask over their nose and mouth. These are a few of the planned changes that will be instituted in our swim lesson program and will allow you time to begin planning. We have set up an additional information page at biaquatics.org with all our guidelines, procedures and "How-To" documents to make your transition back to the water as easy as possible.

New Play Area

Cave Family Heritage Park

The Park District has added a new natural play area to the Cave Family Heritage Park.

The play area features natural wood log hops, poles, boulders, and adventure paths.

Made possible by a joint venture with a local developer and by a partial donation from the Cave family, this beautiful new park includes the historic Cave family home and many stately mature trees.

The house will remain closed while interior restoration plans are solidified.

Pickleball returns to the home of the game

Play wouldn't officially start for another 40 minutes, but early-birds to opening day at the Founders Courts pickleball center were already greeted by the staccato sounds of lucent plastic balls being whacked back and forth across the taut black web of the net.

Tok. TOK. Tok TOK. Tok tok tok ... TOK!

"I told them they could warm up early," said Clay Roberts, Bainbridge Pickleball impresario and event emcee, as if – Tok Tok TOK! – he could have kept them off the courts anyway.

"I wake up a lot of days and think, this is a great day for pickleball on Bainbridge Island," Roberts said, surveying the already humming play. "Today it takes on a whole new meaning. This is a really great day for pickleball on Bainbridge Island."

The Founders Courts at Battle Point Park opened for play Aug. 19 with festivities marking a permanent home for pickleball at the birthplace of the game.

Anticipation had been building for weeks, as pickleballers watched the six-court facility take shape as they played between makeshift lines marked out on the old tennis courts adjacent.

It was an unqualified feel-good story in a year that could use more of them: pickleballers partnering with the Bainbridge Island Metro Park & Recreation District and Bainbridge Island Parks Foundation to develop all-new sports courts, the $140,000 (and counting) in cash and in-kind donations raised, the whirlwind construction, the undeniably splendid results.

Roberts credited Terry Lande, Park District executive director, for proposing that pickleballers have their own facility apart from tennis, and the Park Board for green-lighting funding even as private fundraising was ongoing.

Phases 2, a new plaza with shaded tables, commemorative pavers and interpretive panels on the history of the game and an ornamental archway, is nearing completion.

"We're pretty lucky. When you ask for a lot less and get a lot more, that's not the way this is supposed to go," Roberts said. "All we were asking for is to repurpose the tennis courts, and we end up with a whole new complex. That's not the way this usually works."

He also lauded the Park District construction team for industry and precision. Despite losing weeks to the pandemic and with an overfull slate of projects including the new KidsUp! Playground next door, the team led by David Harry oversaw the court build from start to finish in under four months.

"The logistics of this project were more complicated than the project itself," said Dan Hamlin, the district's Park Services director.

"Covid protocols were new when we launched this project, and David managed it very well."

Said Roberts: "It was warp-speed by anybody's standards. Not only did they do it in such a short period of time, just look at this facility. These are some of the nicest courts you're ever going to play on, and they're right where they should be, at the home of the game."

The color scheme of "Pro Purple" court lanes and green surrounds was cribbed from Indian Wells Tennis Garden, a sprawling Palm Springs complex owned by Oracle founder Larry Ellison that will host next year's national pickleball championships.

There's actually science behind it: on a color wheel, the purple hue lies directly opposite the fluorescent yellow of the ball, meaning ideal contrast and visibility for players.

"We figured Ellison's colorist decided they were the right colors," Roberts said, "and we didn't have that kind of money to hire someone to choose."

Foursomes paid $200 to reserve court time during the first three hours of play, with all donations going toward court construction and planned amenities.

Typical was the quartet of Sherry Burke, Terri Segadelli, Robin Schmidt and Lori Hefner, who generally play as a group to meet Covid prevention mandates. Exiting the court after their inaugural hour of play, the superlatives whooshed forth like a well-struck pickleball in flight:

"...fantastic, fabulous..."

"...awesome, a night-and-day difference..."

"...the colors are perfect, the surface is perfect..."

"...and we have real lines and we don't have to put up the nets..."

"...you feel like you're really playing pickleball, as opposed to 'what's that line' on the tennis court..."

"It's been a great project to support," said Burke by way of summation, crediting Roberts for his Barnum-level promotional skills. "Clay should have been a snake-oil salesman. 'Get a hat.

Get a shirt. Get a tile, we just need a little more.' And you feel good and think, I can give a little more."

Handmade signs honored Joel Pritchard, Barney McCallum and Bill Bell, who share credit for inventing the game in the back yard of the Pritchard compound on Pleasant Beach in 1965. McCallum, the longest surviving member of the founding trio, passed away last year at age 93, but was surely there in spirit with his fellows.

One court was reserved for honors play, with Roberts assembling quartets of top contributors and others who provided inspiration through the project.

Honorees included Justin Gallant, who as a 10-year-old scraped together a $100 gift early on, and 89-year-old Ginger Klute, the group's oldest player, who took up the game just a year ago and was now banging the ball around with gusto.

"I absolutely love it. It's unbelievable," she said. "I can hardly wait!"

Wait for what? The courts are open. You just played.

"To play again tomorrow," she said.

The wonder may have been that she or anyone else actually went home.

CEDAR WILL LAST

*Artist David Franklin returns to restore the beloved KidsUp!
Playground artwork*

David Franklin was just finding his touch as a professional artist when he was commissioned to create pieces for a new playground called KidsUp!

Schooled in the Northwest Coast Native style, Franklin, of Indianola, saw a dearth of public art on Bainbridge that reflected the island's first inhabitants and their culture.

Working with red cedar, Franklin carved a large-format Northwest Coast-styled mask and a smaller eagle, figures that would welcome visitors to the playground for the next 20 years.

"This cultural language is something I speak in support of Northwest Native artists," he says. "It doesn't represent me per se, but it is a language I've learned ... A whole generation of Native artists are coming up who are really vital and doing great things. This is from an era where that didn't happen as much."

As the playground's new iteration takes shape at Battle Point Park, Franklin has been commissioned again, this time to recondition his original pieces for a new generation.

On a recent visit to the playground, Franklin found his works to be in good shape these two decades on, despite a seasonally tough climate that wore down and finally claimed the wooden playground around them.

Franklin's eagle, soaring over an ornamental gate at the playground entrance, has grown a coat of lichen, and its colorful features will be repainted in his shop. The large mask will be restored in place, as will Northwest Native-styled panels over the nearby covered area. But the cedar's weathering and patina will be left largely intact.

"With certain things, a little bit of the aging is okay. That age becomes part of the work," Franklin says. "Plus it's not so precious that you can't go up and touch it."

"We're pretty lucky to have these beautiful examples of Northwest art at Kids Up playground," says Doug Slingerland of the Bainbridge Island Metro Park & Recreation District. "It's a great privilege to have David help us freshen them up. Our whole mission with this renovation has been to honor the original KidsUp! playground. These pieces are such beloved parts of that original design, it will be wonderful to see them cleaned up to welcome a whole new generation of families."

"I'm a white guy from Denver, but my training was in learning Northwest coast art," Franklin says. "I thought it would be an important thing to learn as an artist, the art that emerged from here. Nobody was doing these things, there wasn't really any art that represented native people on Bainbridge Island at all. It seemed like if you were doing this park about the community, you ought to look at that. It was a way of bringing our history into it."

Franklin vividly recalled the KidsUp! playground's construction.

"It was pretty cool. Jay Inslee was out here, (former Washington governor) Gary Locke was out here, a lot of great people. You really got to know your community," he says. "It was a wonderful event, a real community build, and that's a pretty neat thing. This spot will always have a good feeling because of that."

Like the castle towers and covered pavilion, Franklin's works will preserve continuity between old playground and new. No surprise they're still here. As he says, "Cedar will last."
